The History of Leather

From the earliest civilizations right up until the present time, people throughout the world have held leather in high esteem. Supporting this fact is the large number of articles that are made out of leather, from upholstered furniture to baseball gloves, and smart looking clothing for men and women.

Nature's products, by their inherent beauty, affect our senses and our emotions. It is indeed a timeless fashion, and destined to continue as such. Just the sound of the word "leather" immediately conjures up pleasant thoughts that alert the senses. The scent, the sight, and most of all the feel of a leather article accelerate the desire to own it.

Leather furniture is one of the products that has contributed to the growth in the industry. Over 20% of all furniture sold today is leather, and studies show the trend continues.

Consumers are quickly realizing the many benefits of leather:

- Leather is more durable than fabric, so it lasts longer.
- Leather breathes and adjusts to body temperature, making it very comfortable to sit on.
- Leather is usually easier to clean and care for.
- Leather has the reputation of style and class.
- Because of leather's many unique qualities, manufacturers can create a rich look to compliment a formal room or a rustic worn look for a mountain cabin or vacation home.

When you choose leather for your upholstery, you get more than exceptional value; you get to enjoy leather's luxurious "hand" when you touch it, and total comfort when you sit or lie down. It takes nature, skill, and time to create quality goods with appeal; this is why articles made of leather give lasting pleasure and satisfaction.

No two hides are alike. There are scratches, scars, wrinkles, and more that can affect the look of the hide. These are not flaws, but natural markings, which add to the beauty of one of the best products that nature has to offer.

Genuine Leather

To calculate leather requirements from fabric yardage, order 18 square feet of leather for every yard of 54" fabric.

When ordering leather, please specify number and color.

Hook and Loop Fasteners

Hook and loop fasteners are woven and consist of two mating strips. The hook or male section is covered with stiff little hooks. The loop or female section is covered with tiny, soft loops. When pressed together the hooks and loops engage, creating an adjustable, highly versatile and secure closure. To open, it is simply peeled apart. These tapes can be opened and closed thousands of times. Pressed together, they fasten tightly. Direct outdoor use is not recommended.

Plain / Sew-On

To separate, simply peel apart.
